

Epidemiology for understanding our changing world

Saskatchewan Epidemiology Association Symposium 2016
 Wednesday, November 2nd, 2016 – Marquis Hall, University of Saskatchewan,
 Saskatoon, SK

AGENDA

7:30am	Registration, breakfast, and poster set-up
8:45 – 9:00am	Opening remarks Dr. Saqib Shahab, Chief Medical Health Officer, Saskatchewan Ministry of Health
9:00 –9:45am KEYNOTE	Father’s last word: Transgenerational effects of the paternal environment. Dr. Janice Bailey, Professor, Laval University
9:45 – 10:45am	PANEL: Exposure to environmental contaminants: Challenges to understanding and responding to health threats. Dr. Janice Bailey, Professor, Laval University; Dr. James Irvine, Medical Health Officer, Northern Health Services, Saskatchewan; Dr. Nathan Erickson, Western College Veterinary Medicine; Megan Clark, Saskatchewan Prevention Institute. Moderator: Dr. Michael Schwandt.
10:45 – 11:15am	BREAK AND POSTER VIEWING
11:15 -11:45am	What do you mean by ‘lens’? A veterinary epidemiologist’s exploration of ‘hearing data’. Dr. Tasha Epp, Professor, Western College Veterinary Medicine
11:45 -12pm Oral Abstract	Food outbreak investigation: The effect of recall bias. Patrick Seitzinger, School of Public Health, University of Saskatchewan
12pm – 12:45pm	LUNCH
12:45pm – 1:30pm	SEA Annual General Meeting (everyone welcome to attend)
1:30 – 2:15pm KEYNOTE	Canadian Network for Public Health Intelligence (CNPHI): A platform enabling scientific public health informatics and biosurveillance. Dr. Shamir Mukhi, Chief Engineer, Canadian Network for Public Health Intelligence, Public Health Agency of Canada
2:15 – 2:45pm	Zika virus: An emerging disease with emerging challenges. Dr. Joanne Tataryn, Veterinary Epidemiologist, Public Health Agency of Canada
2:45 – 3:15pm	BREAK
3:15 – 3:30pm Oral Abstract	The cost-effectiveness of lung cancer screening in Saskatchewan. Rachel Bethune, School of Public Health, University of Saskatchewan
3:30-3:55	What’s on your desk? Community Health & Epidemiology (U of S), Health Quality Council, Public Health Agency of Canada, School of Public Health (U of S), First Nations Inuit Health Branch
3:55 – 4:25pm	Prenatal biomonitoring project in northern Saskatchewan Dr. James Irvine, Medical Health Officer, Northern Health Services, Saskatchewan
4:25 pm	Closing Remarks, Dr. Bijay Adhikari, SEA Chair
	4:30PM AFTER EVENT- LOUIS’ LOFT EVERYONE WELCOME! PRESENTATION OF STUDENT AWARDS