

Celebrating Epidemiology's Contribution to the Pandemic Response

Saskatchewan Epidemiology Association 20th Symposium (1st virtual)

OCTOBER 28th 2021, 1-4:30 PM

1:00-1:15pm	Opening Remarks Dr. Saqib Shahab, Chief Medical Health Officer, Saskatchewan Ministry of Health
1:15-2:00 OPENING KEYNOTE	Where Do We Go From Here? The Future of SARS-CoV-2 Research Dr. Angie Rasmussen, Virologist, Vaccine and Infectious Disease Organization (VIDO), University of Saskatchewan
2:00-2:30	The Olympics of Epidemiology: Perspectives from Saskatchewan's COVID-19 Pandemic Response Dr. Maureen Anderson, Assistant Professor, Community Health & Epidemiology, University of Saskatchewan
2:30-3:00	BREAK
3:00-3:30	Spatially Exploring COVID-19 Pandemic Neighborhood Vulnerabilities Dr. Valerie Crooks, Professor and Canada Research Chair in Health Service Geographies, Simon Fraser University
3:30-4:15 CLOSING KEYNOTE	One Health and COVID-19: Issues, Actions and Missed Opportunities Dr. Scott Weese, Professor and Director of the Centre for Public Health and Zoonoses, University of Guelph
4:15-4:30	Presentation of the Spirit of the Profession Award